

Tuckahoe Garden Club of Westhampton
November Membership Meeting
Wednesday, November 14 at 10:00 a.m.
Kent-Valentine House

The meeting was held jointly with the James River Garden Club.

Announcements

Betty Jenkins welcomed the two clubs to the joint meeting and thanked our hostess: Kathy Watson and Peyton Wells from TGC and Tenley Beasley, Rossie Hutcheson and Eva Clark from JRGC.

Betty reminded us to pick up HGW Centennial Anniversary magnets. Flyer in the chairs (attached) gives a few details.

Betty read a letter of thanks for our pledge to Partners 4 Plants from Dede Petre, President of GCA.

Betty reminded us to shop Sara Campbell today to support HGW.

Anne Poarch will be reading poetry and discussing Bikes and Basket at The Woman's Club today at 12:30.

The James River Garden Club cookbooks for sale after meeting.

Susie Rawles and Betty gave Meg Turner a gift for organizing the meeting.

Louise Kirby and Hope Foster introduced Meg Turner, who introduced the speakers and reminded us of the Partners 4 Plants workdays:

- Thursday, January 10, 1-3pm including Chapel Island tour by botanists
- Thursday, March 21, 11a to 1p
- Friday, May 31, 9a-11a
- Monday, July 22, 1p-3p

Program

Botanist Chris Senfield and Invasive Task Force Member Meg Turner presented the Native Habitat Restoration Project (GCA Partners 4 Plants Initiative). Botanist Joey Thompson discussed the Natural Communities of the James River Park System.

A Question and Answer session Q with Chris and Joey followed the presentation.

Martha Moore and Madeline Mayhood gave update on the Newport, Rhode Island tour in June 19-22, 2019.

No Artistic or Horticulture exhibits this meeting.

The meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Ellen Buoyer
Recording Secretary
November 19, 2018

Attachments
GCV Centennial Flyer

GARDEN CLUB
OF VIRGINIA

Centennial

1920-2020

Save the Date!

GCV Centennial Celebration!!

When? May 13-14, 2020

Where? Richmond!

What? Extraordinary speakers! A wonderful exhibit of GCV history at the Virginia Museum of History & Culture and a gala.

All members are invited!