

Tuckahoe Garden Club of Westhampton March Membership Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Tuckahoe Garden Club of Westhampton was held on Wednesday, March 20 2019, at 11 a.m. at Shagbark restaurant, the President being in the chair and the Recording Secretary being present. The minutes of the February membership meeting were approved.

Announcements

- Betty thanked the meeting's hostess, Lena Scott, for putting together the well-attended lunch meeting.
- Betty thanked Jill Mountcastle, editor of The Tuckahoe News, and reminded us of the valuable and timely information it contained that Jill works diligently to produce for us.
- Hylah Boyd reminded us of the Chapel Island work day scheduled for the next day, Thursday, March 21.
- Betty announced that plans for the GCV Centennial celebration are being evaluated and looks forward to sharing them with us as they develop.
- Lisa Brennan, co-chair of Historic Garden Week, announced the Guidebooks, brochures and posters are being distributed around town. She also described a new, fun Botanical Cocktail promotion the committee is doing with local restaurants. The goal is to promote Historic Garden Week using social media among new audiences. Each one of the 10 participating restaurants will provide a special botanical cocktail on their cocktail list during the month of April. The HGW committee made a special cocktail napkin to be served with the cocktail that promotes garden week. Members are encouraged to patronize the restaurants, order the botanical cocktail and share on social media using #hgwcheers. The participating restaurants are Perch, Laura Lee's, three locations of Tazza Kitchen, Red Salt, Alewife, Lemaire, Maple and Pine, The Daily and Shagbark.

Anne Kempe announced that volunteers receive a complimentary pass to the tour day on which they worked.

- Susan Meyer reminded us of the upcoming GCV Daffodil Day at Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden next Tuesday, March 26.
- Martha Moore announced the Spring Sale order form was on the Tuckahoe Garden Club website, reminding us the password was daffodil.
- GCA 2020 meeting: Peyton Wells, Kathy Watson, Joanie Robins and Martha Moore went to Asheville, NC for a planning meeting for next year's GCA meeting at the Grove Park Inn.
- Betty announced that in lieu of a membership meeting in April, members could gather at Lynne Brooke's house for an Introduction to Mindfulness and Meditation by Lynne. The event is on April 3 at 10:00am. Text Lynne to register.

Business

By Laws/Membership – Janie Pinney read the proposal for membership changes to bylaws . See attachment. The membership will vote on the change at the April membership meeting.

The membership voted on a change to the Standing Rules and Procedures to say that all membership voting will be by electronic ballot.

Meeting adjourned at 11:30 a.m. for lunch, a specially prepared Farm to Table with comments on each course by chef Walter Bundy.

Respectfully submitted,
Ellen Buoyer
Recording Secretary

By-Laws

Article V - Election of Membership.

Duties of Membership Committee:

Paragraph 3: They shall keep a list of "Proposers" and "Endorsers" from year to year, to monitor proposals of new members, according to Article V, Section 1.

Section 1. Proposal of New Members.

Candidates for Active membership who have not been previous members of any class of membership must be proposed by an Active member ("Proposer") with the endorsement of two other Active members ("Endorsers") ~~none of whom has proposed or endorsed a candidate for Active membership within the previous Club year defined as June 1st through May 31st.~~ An active member is eligible to propose a candidate for membership provided she has not done so during the previous Club year. A Club year is defined as June 1st through May 31st. An active member may endorse one candidate for membership annually. No member of the Executive Committee or a member of a candidate's immediate family (mother, mother-in-law, sister, sister-in-law, aunt) may sign as proposer or endorser for such candidate. The proposal shall be made by membership to the Membership Chairman who will present it to the Board for approval. Upon such approval, it shall be sent to the membership, preceding the November meeting. There shall be a maximum of 6 new active members voted into membership in any year.

A special election may be called by the President with the Executive Board's approval in the event that vacancies occur after the November election.

Standing Rules and Procedures

Section 2, Procedures Related to By-Laws

Article V

Section 11. Voting for New Active Members

All voting shall be by electronic ballot. New Active members may be elected once a year at the November meeting and also when the President calls a special election, according to Article V, Section 1. Those receiving the most votes will be elected. In the event of a tie, ~~there shall be a run-off balloting by members present and voting~~ a separate electronic ballot will be sent to members for a run-off vote. Miscast ballots will not be counted.

Section 13. Ballots

Ballots shall be provided sent electronically to active members ten days before the November meeting. The Membership Committee shall indicate include on with the ballot the method of instructions for voting online. ~~, namely: To vote for a candidate, write "yes" after her name. If not voting for a candidate, leave blank the space after her name. Ballots must be signed if sent through the mail to the Chairmen of the Membership Committee, but those cast at the meeting do not have to be signed, only placed in the ballot box as the name of the person voting is checked.~~ All votes must be electronically cast by midnight the day prior to the November membership meeting.
